THE GRANT-COX CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Since will be found the correspondence between Gen. Grant and Governor Cox and the President in relation to the resignation of the former. Various statements of the matter have been made, but the following is the correct version, and also of the reasons which are assigned. Governor Cox's letter, which is dated Columbus, Sept. 19, 1870, is as follows:

"The undersigned, Governor of the State of Ohio, at the request of a number of citizens of Hamilton County, Ohio, respectfully solicits the appointment of Major-General U. S. Grant to the command of the Military District of Kentucky, now vacant by the resignation of Major-General Sheridan, and also of the Military District of Tennessee, now vacant by the resignation of Major-General Thomas. The undersigned has the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant, JOHN A. COX, Governor of Ohio."

To this the President replied as follows:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Sept. 20, 1870.—Your letter of the 19th inst., asking the appointment of Gen. Grant to the command of the Military District of Kentucky, now vacant by the resignation of Gen. Sheridan, and also of the Military District of Tennessee, now vacant by the resignation of Gen. Thomas, is received. Gen. Grant has not resigned, nor is he likely to do so. He is now in the Military Division of the Pacific, and I am not willing to change him. Gen. Thomas has not resigned, and I am not willing to accept his resignation. Gen. Sheridan has resigned, and I have accepted his resignation. Gen. Sheridan has not resigned, and I have accepted his resignation. Gen. Sheridan has not resigned, and I have accepted his resignation. Gen. Sheridan has not
